We pray for the children, their parents, families and teachers. The children and their families are particularly welcome to join us next Sunday 14th June at our 11.30am Mass which will be celebrated by His Excellency Charles Brown, Papal Nuncio, and which will be the closing Mass of our Centenary Year.

Thoughts for exam students

Mass to close our Centenary Year

We extend a special invitation to all our parishioners, their families and friends to our 11.30am Mass on next Sunday 14th June which will be celebrated by His Excellency Charles Brown, Papal Nuncio. This Mass will be the final event of our Centenary Year and we are very much looking forward to it. Parts of Mozart's 'Coronation Mass' (choir and orchestra) will be performed during the Mass which will also hear the first performance of a hymn specially composed by David K'Eogh for the centenary year. There will be refreshments served after Mass and St George's Brass Band will provide musical entertainment!

Tea and Coffee Morning Sunday 21st June

The Annual Golden Years Tea and Coffee Morning to raise funds for our Christmas Party will be held on Sunday 21st June in the Parish Centre from 10.30am to 1pm. Bread, cakes and raffle tickets will be on sale. Wool and excellent hand knit items will also be available. Sufficient funds need to be raised on the day to give our senior citizens a party to remember next Christmas. Please come along and support this worthy project.
