The 11.30am Mass last Sunday was a special celebration for all our deceased loved ones. It was a very moving liturgy and we hope that those present were comforted in their sadness. We would like to thank the Liturgy group for all their hard work and also the choir (adults and children) who sang so well and add such beauty to our liturgies every Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

Our 11.30am Mass this weekend is a Mass for War and Peace. We are delighted to welcome Msgr. Eoin Thynne who is the Head Chaplain of the Defence Forces and we thank him for being with us today. On your way into the church this morning you will be invited to pray for all of those who died in wars and conflicts from 1914 right up to today. We pray for peace in our world and for all who suffer so much throughout the world in conflict areas.

November Liturgies

Sunday 16th November

The 11.30am Mass on Sunday 16th November will be celebrated for all missionaries.

Sunday 23rd November

The 11.30am Mass will be celebrated for all the benefactors of our parish. This is also the next date for the Do This in Memory of Me Mass for the children in our parish who are preparing for First Holy Communion.

November Altar List of the Dead

We thank all of those who have returned November list offerings. The 10.00am Mass on the first Friday of every month is offered for all our deceased loved ones.

Beginning Experience

B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through death, separation or divorce. Do you find that you need more support than family and friends can provide? This is a healing ministry, which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn. Next residential weekend will be held 14th -16th November in All Hallows, Drumcondra, Swords Co Dublin. For further information please contact 086 0877379 or email bedublin@gmail.com

The Church of St. John on the Lateran in Rome is 'Mother and Head of all the churches of the City and the World'. It is the cathedral church of the Bishop of Rome and was called 'St. John' after the two monasteries once attached, dedicated to St. John the Divine and St. John the Baptist. It is however dedicated to the Most Holy Saviour.

Visit of President Higgins on 21st December

Planning is well underway for the visit of President and Mrs Higgins to the parish on 21st December. They will be joining the parishioners for tea and coffee after Mass in the parish centre.

Patrician Meeting

There will be a Patrician Meeting on Monday 10th November at 7.30pm. The topic for discussion is 'The Communion of Saints'. A priest will be in attendance. All are welcome to attend.

Centenary Appeal

Our centenary appeal total now stands at €222,610. We are very grateful to everyone who has donated. Donations are still being received and are most welcome.

Church works

The centre aisle of the church received another sanding and coat of varnish again this week. We are planning to have a full clean of the church completed soon, when all the dust has finally settled. Our architect is liaising with our building contractors about the completion of 'snag list' items.
